Since Gordon Brown became Prime Minister, there have been a lot of initiatives and proposals, not just from the Government but from elsewhere. Please indicate for each of the following whether – from what you know so far – you are inclined to be in favour of it or to oppose it.

	Favour	Oppose	Don't know
Detain terrorist suspects without charge for as long as the police need to carry out their enquiries, provided adequate judicial safeguards are in place	74	17	9
Require single parents on benefit to seek work once their youngest child has reached the age of 12 (later to be lowered to 7)	73	18	9
Ensure that Britain's Prime Minister and the US President are no longer 'joined at the hip' as they often appeared to be when Tony Blair was in power	71	15	14
Reduce the number of 'targets' imposed by central government on local authorities, the police, schools, hospitals and other agencies	70	12	18
Introduce statutory targets for reducing UK's CO2 emissions by 26 to 32 per cent by 2020 and by 60 per cent by 2050	66	18	17
Allow local authorities to build more council houses provided they are in mixed developments and do not form estates consisting solely of council houses	66	23	12
Abandon plans to encourage the building of one or more 'super casinos'	63	24	13
Keep the overall tax burden as it is but cut the basic rate of income tax while raising taxes on the well-off and imposing more in the way of 'green' taxes	59	24	17
Take cannabis more seriously by raising its classification from Class C to Class B, and so increasing the penalties for dealing and possession	59	28	13
Place everyone on the NHS national organ-donor register unless they specifically indicate their wish to opt out	59	34	7
Hold a referendum on whether Britain should ratify the proposed new European Union 'constitution' – even if it is not actually called a constitution	58	17	25
Take the authority to ratify treaties away from the Government of the day and give it to Parliament as a whole	52	18	30
Give couples an additional tax allowance provided they are married and have children aged 5 or under and that one parent is not going out to work	49	36	15
Raise to 18 the age at which pupils can leave education or training	46	41	13
Replace the existing council tax with a local income tax levied at an average rate of 3p or 4p in the pound	45	25	31
Greatly increase the taxes on alcoholic drinks to discourage heavy drinking and fund the treatment of those who abuse alcohol and illegal drugs	38	49	13
Give primary-school pupils in their last year a £5 voucher to spend on a local charity	26	56	18
